Foreword

THE opening section and book division pages are designed as a tribute to the characters collected from Irving's Sketch Book, and created by him—the first man to make American literature known around the civilized world, the man who gave everlasting fame to the Hudson Valley region, and the one author whose stories have been read by every boy and girl.

Just so have we here collected a record of 1930-'31 at Lane that you may read and recollect. We, the staff of '31, sincerely hope that from your crowd of pleasant memories this Annual may rise and lead you by its store of cherished recollections on to your success.

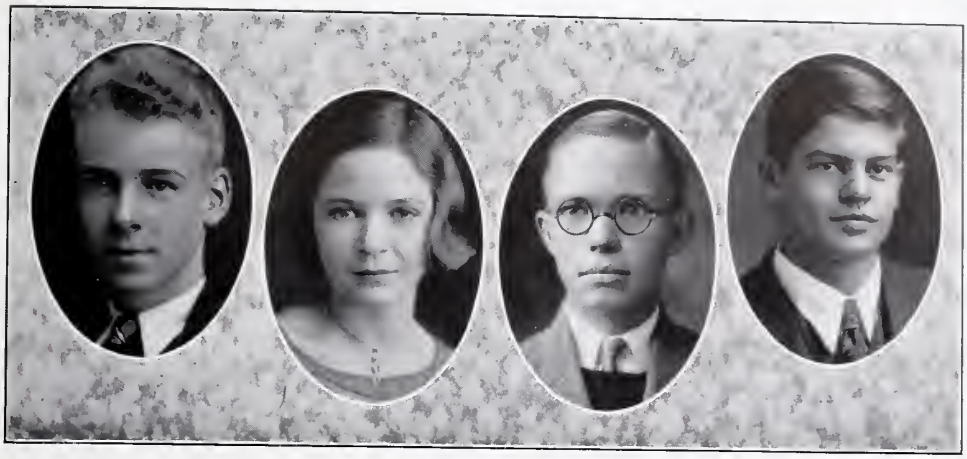
Classes

EVEN in the days when Ichabod Crane taught the Three R's there were those who had to wear the dunce cap. And what is that drawing on the blackboard? Could it be a caricature of Ichabod himself?



Senior Class

Motto: "Haec olim meminisse iuvabit"

Colors: Green and White Flower: White Rose

Billy Ballard	President
Mae Zabawski	Vice-President
Robert Crowder	Secretary
Archie Hahn	Treasurer
George Bailey	Testator
Dabney Trice	Poet
Virginia Duff	Prophet
Elizabeth Neal	Historian
Mr. H. H. Walker	Sponsor

Mary Isabelle Allegree

Treasurer Sophomore Class, '28-'29; Club Reporter, Midway Student, '29-'30; Feature Editor Chain, '30-31; H. L. S. four years; Players Club Secretary, '29-'30, Member four years; Glee Club President, '30-'31, Member four years.

Who doesn't know "Izzy's" sweet disposition and cheerful smile?

Charles Glasgow Armstrong

Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; Senior Hi-Y, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Football Letters, '29-'30, '30-'31.

Glasgow is a grand football player, playing either in the line or backfield with equal ease.

Charles Cabell Bailey

Circulation Manager, Midway Student, '30-'31; Joke Editor, Chain, '30-'31; M. L. S., '28-'29, '29-'30,'30-31; Secretary Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; President Student Council, '30-'31, Member, '28-'29; Football Squad, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Track Squad, '29-'30.

Cabell is a regular pillar of old Lane High. He's proved his worth not only in athletics but in scholarship also.

George Lloyd Bailey, Jr.

Composition Editor, Bumble Bee, '30-'31; M. L. S., '30-'31; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31.

George's ability in debating is equalled only by his violin playing or singing. In fact, there seems to be no limit to his talent.

Leonard William Ballard, Jr.

Senior Testator, '29-'30; Senior President, '30-'31; Assistant Editor Bumble Bee, '30-'31; H. L. S., '29-'30, '30-'31; Players' Club, '30-'31; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31; History Club, '29-'30.

A president of a Senior Class has to have certain admirable characteristics—popularity, leadership. Billy has these—plus.

Margaret Virginia Barger

Typist Bumble Bee, '30-'31.

Virginia is a good student and is of the type whom teachers like to get in their classes.

Carrie Calhoun Baylor

Girls' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Carrie's alto voice adds a great deal to the harmony in the gatherings of the Glee Club.

Thomas Pemberton Biggs

Senior Hi-Y, '30-'31; Track, '29-'30.

Tommy works steadily and, therefore, we are sure he will make a great success in his chosen life-work.

William Bishop

Some people must wonder whether or not William walks, for he and his motorcycle are nearly inseparable.

Annie Garna Blakey

Exchange Editor Midway Student, '30-'31.

"Garna is a peach of a girl," is the opinion of her many friends. She's been a great help to Mrs. Johnson in the library.

James Wood Bouldin, Jr.

Another one of that famous family who are all alike in looks and characteristics, is James. No further comment is necessary.

Lillie Francis Bowen

Frances is a girl whose quiet, attractive ways have won her many friends.

Evelyn Beatrice Brooks

Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-31.

"Eddie," the most popular of all the fair damsels of Lane Hi, has a clear soprano and stars in many of our operettas.

Harriet Agnes Brunton

Reporter Midway Student, '29-'30, '30-'31; Student Council, '29-'30; Orchestra, '28-'29; Metcalf Literary Society, '30-'31.

Agnes is indispensable here at Lane High. Whatever would we have done without her, who has always been so willing to help?

Scott Carter

President Freshman Class, '28-'29; President Junior Hi-Y, '27; Senior Hi-Y, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; M. L. S., '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; History Club, '29-'30; Student Council, '31; Football Letter, '27-'28-'29, Debating Team, '29.

Scott has had a lot of hard luck—illness, etc., but, cheered on by all of us, he's come through with flying colors.

Jack Cohen

Basketball Squad, '29-'30.

As well as being a basketball player of note, Jack has the waviest hair in the Senior Class—surely a great distinction.

William Jackson Coward

Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31; Basketball Squad, '29.

Bill is liked by everyone. And why not? He surely deserves it.

Alice Granvelle Crawford

Alice is always ready to do her part in any school activity.

Robert England Crowder

Secretary Senior Class, '30-'31; Senior Hi-Y, '30-'31.

Robert's beautiful style of writing is the envy of everyone. This talent will be of great help to him in his chosen profession.

Henry Daniel

Players' Club four years; Senior Hi-Y, '29-'30, '30-'31; H. L. S., Treasurer, '29-'30, President, '30-'31, Member four years; Assistant Photo Editor Chain, '29-'30, Photo Editor, '30-'31.

Henry typifies the true spirit of Lane High. He is bound to be a success in life because of his talents and characteristics.

Hugh W. Davis

Senior Hi-Y, '27-'28, '28-'29; Junior Hi-Y, '26-'27.

Hugh is Miss Buford's standby. He is always ready to argue with her on anything and everything. And who doesn't like "Monk"?

Laura Virginia Dinwiddie

Member M. L. S. four years; Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; News Reporter Midway Student, '28-'29; News Editor, '29-'30; Editor-in-chief, '30-'31.

We are sure "Jin" will go a long way in her chosen field of Journalism. It is she who has made a great success of the Midway Student.

Ruth Irene Dowdy

Ruth can be described best, perhaps, by the one word "easy-going." She has never been seen rushing frantically around but always seems to get what she wants just the same.

Ruth Virginia Duff

Class Prophet, '30-'31; Metcalf Literary Society, '30-'31; Reporter Midway Student, '30-'31.

"Duffy"—our personal nomination for the most unusual Senior. Who doesn't know the lazy voice, the unusual vocabulary, and that hair!

Joseph Eddins

Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; Senior Hi-Y, member, '28-'29, '29-'30; President, '30-'31; H. L. S., '28-'29; Art Editor Chain, '29-'30, '30-'31.

Joe is our artist. Whenever any of the classes or clubs need any help in the way of drawing, they know where they can get it. Here's luck to our talented Joe!

Margaret Estes

Junior Editor Bumble Bee, '29-'30; Business Manager Bumble Bee, '30-'31; M. L. S., '29-'30; Treasurer, '30-'31; Basketball Letter, '29-'30; Players' Club, '28-'29; President, '29-'30, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31.

Margaret is a good all-around girl. She is the main prop of both the Players' Club and Glee Club, as well as a fine basketball player.

Donald Fitzhugh

Senior Hi-Y, '29-'30, '30-'31; Football Letters, '29-'30, '30-'31, Captain, '30-'31.

Donald is rather bashful in the presence of girls, but the boys all think he's a fine sport and a good all-around fellow.

Evelyn Beatrice Garrette

Basketball Squad, '27-'28.

"Bee" is ambitious and conscientious enough to make good grades, and yet she's always ready for a good time.

John Sharshall Grasty, Jr.

Junior Hi-Y, '26-'27; Senior Hi-Y four years; Aladdin Club, '28.

John is one of the most popular boys at Lane Hi on account of his wit and his unruffled equanimity.

Eleanor Frances Graves

Sport Editor Chain, '30-'31; H. L. S., '28-'29, '29-'30; Secretary, '30-'31; Players' Club four years; Girls' Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Debating, '29-'30; History Club, '29-'30; Reporter Midway Student, '27-'28, '28-'29, News Editor, '29-'30.

"Co" is a good sport in the true meaning of the word. She's always been willing to do her part in extracurricular activities.

Archie Hahn, Jr.

Treasurer Senior Class, '30-'31; M. L. S., '29-'30, '30-'31; Senior Hi-Y, '29-'30, '30-'31; Student Council, '29-'30; Players' Club, '30-'31; Football Letter, '30-'31.

Notice Archie's activities. Actions speak louder than words.

Martha Frances Hamm

Midway Student Club Editor, '28-'29, Assistant Editor, '29-'30; Editor-in-Chief Bumble Bee, '30-'31; M. L. S. member, '28-'29, Secretary, '29-'30; Student Council, '29-'30; Girls' Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Reading, '29-'30; History Club, '29-'30.

Here's to Frances—the girl who's proved that a fine scholar isn't always a queer bookworm!

Frances Mae Harlan

There is one quotation that fits Mae better than any words of ours could possibly do. Maybe it's old, but it's still true that "speech is great, but silence is greater."

Marybelle Hayes

Marybelle knows that "silence is golden" and she follows this precept faithfully.

Mary Adelaide Herndon

Mary is one of the quiet and studious girls in our class. She is good-natured and doesn't know the meaning of the word "Temper."

Grace Elizabeth Herr

Assistant Editor Midway Student, '30-'31; Metcalf Literary Society, '30-'31; Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '29-'30, '30-'31.

And who doesn't like Grace, with her nice quiet ways and her happy smile?

Jean Rosalie Herring

Reporter Midway Student, '30-'31; Art Editor Bumble Bee, '30-'31.

Our dreamy Jean is another artist, and a very good one at that. We all appreciate her help in the various school activities.

Virginia Louise Holloway

Louise is rather retiring, but her friends know that she is one to whom they can go with their sorrows and joys.

Myrtle O'Neil Johnson

Student Council, '29-'30.

Myrtle is truly a credit to Lane Hi. She is lots of fun always. Moreover she's a regular Math shark.

Olivia Kincaid

Assistant Editor Bumble Bee, '30-'31; H. L. S., '29-'30, '30-'31; Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '29-'30, '30-'31.

Stately Olivia—her name just fits her. She is admired by her many friends.

Edgar Licouvous Lane, Jr.

Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31; Track Team, '29-'30; Football Letter, '30-'31.

Edgar's size alone, aside from his outstanding ability, has made him an asset to Coach Leitch's teams.

Jessie Hortense McAlexander

Typist Chain, '30-'31; Typist Bumble Bee, '30-'31.

"Mac" may not say much, but you can be sure that when she does, it will be well worth listening to.

Mary Alice McCoy

Typist Chain, '30-'31; Typist Bumble Bee, '30-'31.

Mary Alice is a very good student, but by no means a "grind."

Mary Ruffin McMurdo

Vice-President Sophomore Class, '28-'29; Secretary Junior Class, '29-'30; Student Council, '29-'30; Girls' Reserve, '28-'29, '29-'30.

"Polly" is always ready for a good time and is well-liked by everyone.

Orvall Hansford Marshall

President Sophomore Class, '28-'29; President Junior Class, '29-'30; Make-up Editor Midway Student, '30-'31; H. L. S., '29-'30; Treasurer, '30-'31; Junior Hi-Y, '26-'27; Senior Hi-Y four years; G. A. A. Board, '29-'30; Manager G. A. A. Stand, '29-'30; Football Letters, '27-'28, '28-'29; Captain, '29-'30; Players' Club, '27-'28, '28-'29; Treasurer, '30-'31; Basketball Letters, '28-'29, '29-'30; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31.

"Firpo" is a boy whose popularity is deserved, and is he an athlete!

Hazel Lee Massie

Hazel is always full of fun and has a cheery word for everyone. All the students of Lane High know and like her.

Dorothy Anne Mayo

M. L. S., '29-'30, '30-'31; Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; Girl's Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30, '31.

Here's to "Dot"—our smallest and youngest Senior!

Lelia Mae Meeks

Mae has an infectious giggle which pleases everyone—teachers, fellow-students, and even—Cecil Taylor!

Pauline Achsah Miller

Pauline may be quiet, but she's certainly not a slacker. Her chief characteristics are earnestness and a fixed purpose.

T. Calvert Muse

Assistant Business Manager Chain, '29-'30; Senior Hi-Y, '29-'30, Vice-President, '30-'31; G. A. A. Board, '29-'30; G. A. A. Stand, '30-'31; Football Letter, '30; Basketball Squad, '29-'30, '30-'31.

"Cal" is an all-around athlete. He plays both football and basketball—and plays them well.

Mary Elizabeth Mustard

Assistant Editor Midway Student, '30-'31; Exchange Editor Bumble Bee, '30-'31; M. L. S., '30-'31; Secretary Student Council, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Mary just came to us last year, and since then it has been a regular part of our high school life to see her dashing from one meeting to another.

Elizabeth Haile Neal

Historian Senior Class, '30-'31.

If you're blue, just go to Elizabeth and she'll cheer you up. She is one of our best-liked Seniors—and no wonder!

Marvel Thurman Norford

Joke Editor Midway Student, '30-'31; Girls' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Marvel's lovely hair is the most noticeable thing about her to the girls—and maybe to the boys too!

Carroll Carlton Perry

Student Council, '29-'30; Players' Club, '30-'31; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Carroll is another bashful boy. He is also very modest, but he really has a wonderful voice and other talents that he tries to conceal.

Hattie Virginia Phillips

Although Hattie is rather quiet, she has managed to acquire one quality which so many girls lack—dignity.

Mary Frances Pirkey

Frances is one of those rarities of the present day—a girl who lets other people talk instead of rushing in and talking herself. She also has much respect for her teachers.

Winifred Jackson Pugh

Assistant Editor Chain, '29-'30; Editor-in-chief Chain, '30-'31; H. L. S., '27-'28, '28-'29, Secretary, '29-'30, Vice-President, '30-'31; Honor Committee, '27-'28; History Club, '29-'30.

Whatever praise you have for this Chain must go to Winifred, our editor-in-chief, and a grand one at that!

Margery Ann Quarles

Margery is always ready for a good laugh. and people who go with her always have a good time.

Mary Lucy Richardson

Mary dashes frantically through the halls of Lane Hi, always in a hurry. One of the unsolved mysteries of school is her rush.

Mary Elizabeth Robinson

Mary's chief characteristic is her earnestness. When she starts something, she is always sure that she can carry it through with great success.

Montie Richard Hermann Robinson

Assistant Business Manager Bumble Bee, '30-'31; Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Montie doesn't talk much, but you can always depend on him for anything and everything.

William Wyche Robinson

Football Letter, '30-'31.

When Wyche goes into the game, we all know he'll "do or die" for Lane Hi.

Mary Hilda Ross

Vice-President Freshman Class. '27-'28; Senior Editor Chain, '30-'31; M. L. S., '29-'30, '30-'31; Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; History Club, '29-'30.

Not too frivolous and not too serious, Hilda has calmly endured the not-so-pleasant side of school life and gratefully accepted its pleasures. Maybe it's because she's been making friends and being a friend to others.

George Randolph Scantling

Football Letter, '30-'31.

"Scant" is a regular pillar in the line and many an opposing player has he "spilled."

William Schwartz

Reporter Midway Student, '28-'29; H. L. S. four years; Players' Club four years; Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; Assistant Manager Football Team, '30-'31; Football Squad, '29-'30.

Bill is much liked by his many friends. They were easily won by his catching smile and care-free manner.

Bertram Lee Smith

Our renowned instructors like to get "Bert" in their classes, for he is easy to teach. We're sure he has not a single enemy in Lane Hi.

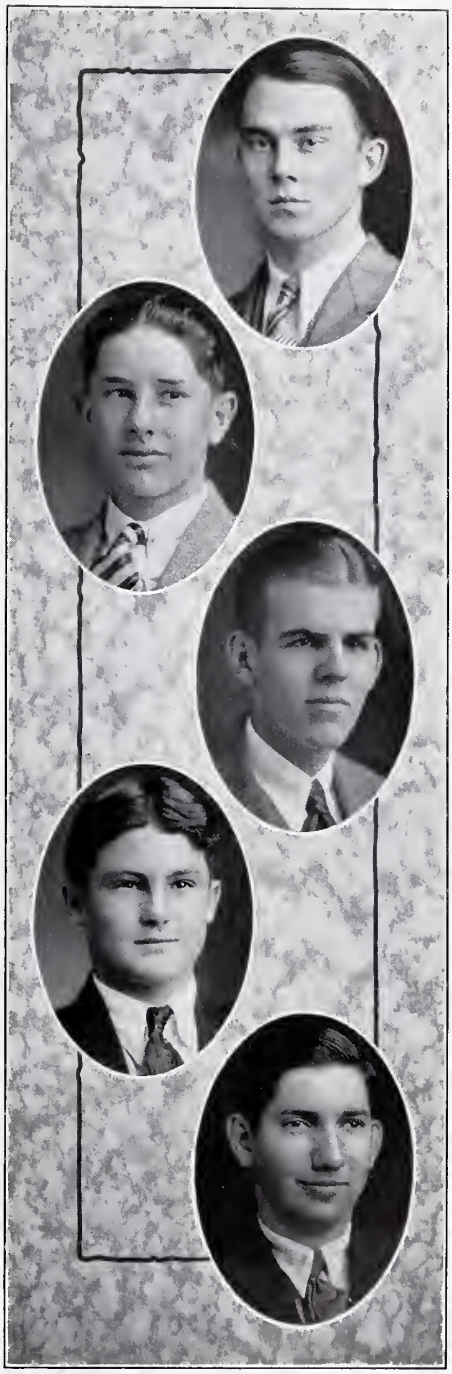
Russell Smith

G. A. A. Stand, '30-'31.

"Smitty" is perhaps the most popular football hero ever to have been at Lane High. He could just slip between the legs of his opponents and make touchdowns. And oh, the cheer, when ever he went into a game!

Leroy White Snow

"Roy" actually seems to like going to school. He discusses his subjects intelligently with his teachers.



Louis Mason Spicer

Advertising Manager Chain, '30-'31; Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28; G. A. A. Stand, '30-'31; History Club, '28-'29, '29-'30; Editor Orange and Black; Manager Boys' Basketball, '30-'31.

As all in Room 11 can testify, Mason will certainly be a good business man. In fact, we think he has promises of being a big financier!

Rosabelle Sprouse

Basketball Letters, '27-'28, '29-'30; Girls' Glee Club four years.

"Rosie" is a great forward and has been a heroine at Lane High ever since the Petersburg game last year, when she made the goal that tied the score.

Edward Bartle Stevens

"Ed" is rather quiet, but is really well worth knowing.

Helen Stockdale

Helen is a very popular young lady, although she hasn't been with us but two years. She has made many friends during her stay here.

Elizabeth Virginia Stoneburner

We predict that Elizabeth will be some day a well-known business woman because of her characteristics of efficiency and perseverance.

Roberta May Stoneham

Roberta is a girl who is well-liked by both the pupils and teachers of Lane High. This, in itself, is an index of her character.

Virginia Cloud Stoneham

"Piggy" is a good sport on any and all occasions. Her wit has made her very popular.

Claude Norris Stulting

Junior Hi-Y, '27-'28.

Norris is very small in size but during his high school career he's surely managed to make a name for himself.

Myrtle Rea Tate

Girls' Glee Club, '30-'31.

Introducing Myrtle—the girl who could never lose her temper because she never had any.

Cecil Elwyn Taylor

Players' Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31; History Club, '28-'29.

Cecil's ghost will always haunt Room 16, we're sure. He seems to have a corner on that room.

Margaret Moncure Taylor

Margaret is always ready to lend a helping hand to everyone. "A friend in need" is a fine description of her.

Stuart Austin Taylor

Senior Hi-Y, '30-'31.

Stuart has a dry sense of humor and a quiet attractiveness which make him very popular with girls and boys.

Freda Linda Thomas

Freda is a very conscientious girl. She always has her own lessons well prepared, and, moreover, she doesn't mind helping less ambitious friends.

Dabney Minor Trice, Jr.

Senior Poet, '29-'30; Midway Student Joke and Literary Editor, '29-'30; Poetry Editor Bumble Bee, '29-'30; Players' Club, '30-'31; Boys' Glee Club, '30-'31; History Club, '28-'29; '29-'30; Football Squad, '28; Track Squad, '29; Boys' Reading, '30; Cheer Leader, '30-'31.

"Dab," our poet, is really talented. What would the Midway Student and other publications have done without him?

Mary Katherine Walsh

Reporter Midway Student, '30-31.

Mary is a very studious girl and always makes high grades on everything.

Eugene Anderson Wingfield, Jr.

Advertising Manager Chain, '27-'28; Business Manager, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Senior Hi-Y, '30-'31; History Club, '28-'29, '29-'30.

"Buck" is the boy who makes our publications possible by getting ads—and sometimes seemingly impossible ones. We're all very grateful to him.

Beckwith Llewellyn Winn

"Beck" is liked by everyone, and has the high regard of many, many friends.

Virginia Katherine Witt

Girls' Glee Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31.

"Virginia will land up on Broadway yet," say many of the pupils of Ye Olde Lane High. Oh, well, time will tell!

Alice Katherine Wright

History Club, '28-'29.

Alice's chief characteristic is her beautiful hair which is, to put it mildly, red! Also her cheerfulness is well known to everyone.

Charles H. Yost

Football Letter, '30-'31; Senior Hi-Y, '30-'31.

Charles is another football player—but not just another one. He's great.

Helen Yowell

Helen is always ready for a wisecrack and can take them as well as give them, always a characteristic of good sportsmanship.

Mae Zabawski

Players' Club, '29-'30, '30-'31; Secretary Sophomore Class, '28-'29; Vice-President Senior Class, '30-'31.

Mae is so charming that the more one knows her, the more one wishes to know her. Need we say more?

Class History

FOUR years ago, the present class of '31 entered in a field of work different from any other we had yet attempted—that of a high school education. It was a work in which one was thrown upon his own resources in order to learn to be better prepared to cope with life, and through this medium we have received many benefits.

During our high school days we have always looked forward to the time when we would become Seniors. Our joy is at last realized, but as graduation draws near, a feeling of sorrow comes upon us as we think of leaving our school, our school friends, and our school life itself.

Our first year in high school under a new regime was especially difficult for many of us. We can remember how bewildered we were at the bell's ringing for the change of classes, and how, when we had our History quizzes we would sit, waiting for history to repeat itself.

Our Sophomore year was probably easier for us. During this year we became more interested in school activities, and we were glad not to be termed as "Freshmen" anymore.

As Juniors, we, realizing that our goal, the Senior year, was almost attained, worked harder than ever. It was this year that Orvall Marshall won glory and fame in the football world, thrilling us all with his fifty, sixty, or ninety-seven yard dashes down the field. Frances Hamm and Eleanor Graves did especially well in literary work and Winifred Pugh was our prize-winning short story writer in our Junior year.

For our last year in high school, a happy and short one, we selected as our class officers Billy Ballard, President; Mae Zabawski, Vice-President; Robert Crowder, Secretary, and Archie Hahn, Treasurer. They were especially efficient and with the aid of our Sponsor, Mr. Walker, the Senior year proved to be the happiest one during our entire school career.

Our last year has been a very successful one, especially for the publications. The Midway Student, with Virginia Dinwiddie as editor, has been very successful and has made our school life more interesting. The Bumble Bee, under the supervision of Frances Hamm, has provided us with much enjoyment. Then our year book, THE CHAIN, with Winifred Pugh as editor, was published at the end of the year.

So we, the departing class of '31, will take with us many happy remembrances of our high school days, and we bid a fond farewell to the schoolmates we leave behind us.

Senior Class Prophecy

AFTER a life spent in purest chastity, I have been taken up among the gods on Mount Olympus and made Duffus, Goddess of Big Feet. Looking down from these celestial heights I can see my former classmates of '31 engaged in varied and diverse occupations—from Virginia Stoneham furnishing news for The Daily Mirror to Rosabelle Sprouse, a missionary to Siberia.

Frances Hamm is author of that sensational book revealing the intimate life of Julius Cæsar as found in early manuscripts.

Grace Herr, following in her father's footsteps, has become a successful dentist.

Jack Cohen recently won a contest for the most perfect example of masculine beauty.

Myrtle Tate and Mae Harlan are mannequins at "Hawkins" in Charlottesville.

Isabelle Allegree has resigned as secretary of the Methodist church to go as missionary to South America.

Billy Ballard and Evelyn Brooks are living in a state of Holy Matrimony and Perpetual War.

Having succeeded Dr. H. H. Walker, Myrtle Johnson is professor of mathematics at Lane. She is assisted by Virginia Dinwiddie and Margery Quarles, who have startled the world by discovering a method for measuring the diagonal of a square.

Tommy Biggs is Biggs of Biggs, Biggs & Biggs—builders of bigger and better baby carriages.

Eleanor Graves addresses a large radio audience each Saturday night from KUKU. Dabney Trice is chief announcer and poet. Montie Robinson is conductor of the KUKU Symphony Orchestra.

Joe Eddins has attained fame by his cartoons drawn for The Daily Progress.

Hilda Ross is offering startling criticism of a new mystery drama in which Garna Blakey stars. Carol Perry is her worser half and co-partner in fame; William Coward and Leroy Snow are stage managers.

Mary Richardson and Agnes Brunton run a tea room, for which Mary Robinson is head dietitian. Virginia Barger, Frances Bowen, Mary Herndon, and Hattie Phillips are the winsome waitresses.

Archie Hahn has taken Rudy's place and croons over the radio every Thursday night. And Louise Cowles, by the way, is the new pianist for those Connecticut Yankees.

Buck Wingfield is business manager for the Red Alphabetical Character, Lane Hi's official newspaper. Polly McMurdo is joke editor and Mary Alice McCoy writes the stories.

Hortense McAlexander is secretary to the president of the United States, Wyche Robinson, first Democratic president since Woodrow Wilson.

Mary Walsh and Carrie Baylor run a mail plane from Charlottesville to Scottsville, and Ruth Dowdy teaches the kindergarten of Charlottesville's School for Boys how to skip the rope.

Henry Daniel now runs Gitchell's Studio. He keeps his own picture in the window to advertise.

Beatrice Garrett and Hazel Massie are captains in the Chinese Battalion of Death which is over-running Europe and Asia.

Helen Stockdale is still riding home from school with Calvin Ball.

John Grasty, Firpo Marshall, and Charles Lang just beat Pollard in a contest for best-looking men. They were, respectively, 34th, 35th, and 36th.

Cabell Bailey is in the navy now. He's recently been promoted to the rank of Commodore.

Charles Yost, Glasgow Armstrong, and Donald Fitzhugh made the All-American football team this year.

William Schwartz is the young man you see advertising Foot-Saver Shoes.

Alice Wright is a sculptor's model. She just posed for a copy of the statue of Venus de Milo, made by Carter Coleman.

George Bailey is now traveling in Europe gathering material for his masterpiece (?)—"Women—And How to Treat Them."

Frances Pirkey's Condensed Cook Book has been adopted by the leading colleges for the Home Economics Text Book. Freda Thomas is chief recipe tester.

William Bishop has been in the firm of the Virginia Public Service Company for several years. He wears a blue uniform and may be seen at any time on street car No. 21. Bertram Smith and Ed Stevens operate Nos. 22 and 23, respectively.

Mason Spicer and Calvert Muse have started a society called the "Great Lovers of Charlottesville." The roster includes James Bouldin, Norris Stulting and Cecil Taylor (God's gift to the girls of L. H. S.).

Pauline Miller's new Plan of Social Reform is being adopted by Albania.

Hugh Davis and Randolph Seantling are mail-carriers.

Beckwith Winn and Louise Holloway are writing exotic poetry for the Cavalier.

Virginia Witt is the editor of "Nitt-Witt," which appears daily in the Ivy Tribune.

Marvel Norford is in charge of Lane's library.

Mary Mustard is dean of Charlottesville's Woman's College. This college has among its faculty Olivia Kincaid, professor of Psychology, and Winifred Pugh, athletic director.

Roberta Stoneham recently obtained a patent for a labor-saving device.

Robert Crowder and Scott Carter have amassed great fortunes as owners of the Charlottesville-Crozet Bus Lines.

Louise Leake is the World's Champion Woman Heavyweight Boxer.

Margaret Estes is leading lady in Edgar Lane's new production.

Elizabeth Stoneburner, Earline Manpin, and Mae Meeks are matrons at the Albemarle Orphanage.

Alice Crawford was the first to ascend Pike's Peak in a Ford.

Forrest Marshall holds a world's endurance record—he endured Russell Smith's and Stuart Taylor's æsthetic dancing for eight hours. (Peyton Norford played the bagpipes for them, and Helen Yowell designed their flowing robes.)

Dorothy Mayo is an old maid school teacher, teaching the latest song hits.

Jean Herring runs the City Fish Market.

Margaret Taylor and Marybelle Hayes are revenue officers, and have recently been awarded medals for outstanding work.

Mae Zabawski is still a fair co-ed at the University.

Elizabeth Neal has written a complete History of the United States in three volumes. This, by the way, is used as a text book in dear old Lane.

But this great effort of reminiscence must give us pause. Methinks I shall trip lightly across the clouds to a spring where nectar flows continuously. I must be gay—for who knows what tomorrow may bring forth?

Last Will and Testament

DRAWING near the end of the life which four years ago we began, and feeling that we should make some provision for the articles which have accrued to us in the aforesaid life, we, the Senior Class of 1931 of Lane High School, Charlottesville, Virginia, U. S. A., do hereby wish, will, and bequeath the following articles:

To Mr. Sulfridge we do bequeath a new editor for the Scarlet Letter and also a more deserving Senior class.

To Dr. Johnson what better could we leave than a new school, or at least one whose steps won't shake and floors won't creak?

To Miss Buford we wish success as the new principal of George Rogers Clark School, inspiration for the completion of the book by whose dedication we have been so deservingly (?) honored, and five tubes of Ephedrine.

To Mr. Blume we will a model study hall and a wish that some day through his efforts a modern Demosthenes will blossom forth.

Then to Miss Sheppe we leave a robot to keep some of her unruly Seniors in place, a new piano, plus the pianist.

We will "Profit" Riedel a suit with at least fifty pockets to keep all his money straight; also a new G. A. A. Stand (a cafeteria) and a cessation of permits across the street.

We leave to Miss Brown, by whose help our annual has been made possible, our heartiest gratitude and good will.

To Miss Bolen we bequeath a mail assorter, so that Miss Buford and Mr. Riedel won't get all the mail.

To Mr. Lacy we will a better grading system to avoid FF and a class who will "see the point."

We leave Mrs. Johnson a time-clock to avoid unnecessary waste of time checking permits.

We hope Dr. Jones will find new academic worlds to conquer. And we will her a classroom for her unfortunate Virgil classes.

Our knowledge and experience we take with us, but our dignity we pass on to the class of '32. May they honor and revere it!

Virginia Barger leaves her quietness to Dorothy Irving, hoping that Miss Buford, too, will appreciate this.

Virginia Duff's wit is transferred to Boo Herndon.

To Katherine Chisholm is left Isabelle Allegree's demureness.

Joe Eddins wills to all our school organizations Frances Blankinship, that she may uphold his artistic achievements.

Polly McMurdo's geniality is handed down to Jo Peyton.

Virginia Dinwiddie transfers her success with the Midway Student to Elizabeth Shiflett.

We give Donald Fitzhugh's chewing gum ability to Frontiss Liles.

To Mary Moore Davis, Dorothy Mayo leaves her ability to make herself heard.

Hortense McAlexander and Mary Alice McCoy leave to The Chain and Bumble Bee, J. Y. Brown and B. B. Woodson, as typists to fill their place.

Billy Ballard gives his wise-cracks to Ned Echols.

Hattie Phillips' shyness is left with due respects to Elizabeth Elsroad.

To Louise Coffey, Margaret Estes bequeaths her dramatic ability and pep.

Cecil Taylor hands his seat in room 16 over to Tom Parrott, trusting that its rights may never be desecrated.

To Billy Jones is left Myrtle Johnson's adeptness in Math.

Mary Mustard's studiousness we leave to Henry Porter. He may need it.

Olivia Kincaid bequeaths her special Senior dignity to Howard Bouldin.

William Coward leaves to "Shrimp" King his excess height, and Bill Stallings, of course, needs Smitty's great size.

The Chain's official Kodak, Henry Daniel passes on to Sidney Watson, hoping that he may enjoy using it.

Now to the entire student body we leave our sympathy and our wishes that ere long their feet may be trodding the floors of a new school building.

And so to this will and testament we set our seal on this the 30th day of May in the year of our Lord 1931, hereby leaving as executors, Mr. Hawley, Bruno, and Boo Herndon.

Senior Poem

Here we stand on the threshold of life
A band untried and new,
Anxious to put our hands to the wheel.
To rise 'mong the chosen few.

The task is hard, the way is long
But with steady work and care,
Throughout the hardships of life's long day,
We'll strive with hope and prayer.

Tho' the road's not all a way of stone
And the tasks are not all hard
We must not slacken our forward pace
Or another's work retard.

We were gay and happy here at Lane.
And so may our future years
Be filled to the brim with joy and song,
And not over-run with tears.

When we end our climb of the last, long trail
We will think of a task well done,
We can rest in peace and worry not,
For the class of thirty-one.

DABNEY M. TRICE, JR., '31.

Athletics

Ichabod WOULD court the winsome Katrinka Van Tassel, so what would you? When The Headless Horseman appeared—well, it was just too bad, that's all!

COACH James A. Leitch, Jr., or better known as "Jimmy," has an athletic record in both high school and college which can hardly be equaled.

At Lane High he played football for four years and was selected all-state half-back in 1923. He also played basket-ball for four years. As captain and manager in 1923, "Jimmy" was chosen all-state center. In 1924 he was all-state guard and named captain of the mythical five.

As he had a high batting average, "Jimmy" was all-state first baseman for two years in succession. In 1923 he won the javelin throw in the state meet, as well as third, second, and third places, respectively in the 440-, 220- and 100-yard dashes. The next year he placed first in the 440-yard dash, second in the 220-yard dash and third in the 100-yard dash.

"Jimmy," along with Mr. E. F. Markwood, Jr., founded our present G. A. A. Stand as the Boosters' Club. In 1924 he was elected president of the Stand. He also aided in founding the Boys' Self-Government Movement.

At the University of Virginia he received his Freshman Numerals in football, basket-ball, and track for the season 1924-25. "Jimmy" was too light for college football and injuries in 1926 ended a possible career as a college player; but from 1924-28 he was always dependable in both indoor and outdoor track meets.

With this record to his credit, we are most proud to have "Jimmy" as our coach, and we wish him much success in his future undertakings!

Football, 1930

ALTHOUGH for this year our team won only one game, which also was a forfeit, and it looks like a very hopeless record, we are all mighty proud we can say that our team played a fair and fought a clean game all through the season. Winning games fairly is commendable, but losing them fairly and graciously is still more commendable.

The record may seem bad, but the hardest game of the season was fought last. By this score we see that from a practically new and, you might say, even "green" bunch, Coach Leitch, in coöperation with the boys, turned out a really good football team.

Of the forty-five who responded to the call at the beginning of the season, thirty-five stayed out. Only two of last year's letter men were back. At the close of the season, nineteen letters, including the one for Manager Britton, and two stars were awarded. Eight letter men will be lost to the team next year through graduation.

The stars of the year are probably Jones, Ynter, and Captain Fitzhugh, who made the three touchdowns which total Lane's score for the year.

A short account of each game follows:

LANE 0 — SEPTEMBER 26 — V. E. S. 12

The first game of the season was played, as a whole, evenly, although Lane didn't score. The line showed up well, considering their lack of experience.

LANE 6 — OCTOBER 3 — CULPEPER 6

There was stiff competition all through the game. In the last period when the score stood 6-0 for Culpeper, Jones ran 70 yards for a touchdown, made possible by a pass from Taylor to Jones, tying the score. This was the outstanding feature of the game.

LANE 0 — OCTOBER 11 — E. C. GLASS 60

Lane was terribly outclassed in this game, making only two first downs. Glass had the game from the beginning.

LANE 0 — OCTOBER 25 — FISHBURNE 36

Although the score doesn't show it, Lane put up a brave fight and showed up well against the Fishburne eleven, consisting mainly of Harry Martin, former Lane High student, who proved too much for our boys.

Lane 0	October 31	Staunton 12

Staunton made her score in the first half. Receiving the kick-off, Staunton marched down the field for the first score of the game. Their other touchdown was made on a 25-yard pass. In the last period Lane got to the one-yard line only to lose the ball on downs.

Lane 12	November 8	V. S. D. B. 7

In probably the most exciting game of the year for us, Lane came out victorious. V. S. D. B. scored a touchdown and the extra point in only seven plays. But then the Lane line tightened and the fight began. Yuter and Fitzhugh were responsible for our touchdowns. Due to an argument over a five-yard off-side penalty, the V. S. D. B. team left the field.

Lane 0	November 14	Harrisonburg 32

Harrisonburg made a touchdown in each quarter and in the second period they made two. Lane didn't seriously threaten their goal except in the last quarter, only to fumble the ball and be recovered by Harrisonburg to give them their last touchdown on a run of 90 yards.

Lane 0	November 22	R.-M. Freshmen 73

As the score suggests, Randolph-Macon walked away with us, having every advantage. Nevertheless, Lane did not give up, but kept their fighting spirit to the end.

Lane 0	November 27	Clarendon 13

This may easily be termed the best game of the season. Both teams played a clean game and each put their best into it. Lane showed up excellently, but just couldn't get across for a touchdown.

Captain Fitzhugh—Don played every quarter except the first two in the Fishburne game.

Armstrong—Glasgow is good on line plays. He showed up much better at the end of the season.

Hahn—Archie is a punter as well as a passer. He shows up well on end runs also.

Lane—Edgar has the title of the "best-natured on the whole team."

Robinson—Wyche is a punter of no little value and can usually be depended on for a nice gain.

Harris—Newman is very clever at quarter and is good interference.

Yuter—Dan is splendid on end runs. He made one of Lane's touchdowns.

Phillips—Tommy always has that fighting spirit with him for which he is famous.

Cole—This is Norborne's first year out for the team and fortunately he still has another year.

Southall—Roy came out again this year although he didn't make any trips last year.

Murray—Tom is a mighty good passer and punter. He is also a good interference leader.

Morse—Whitton played the whole Thanksgiving game, and he has two more years.

Yost—Charlie got his letter although he had to go to Danville with the Monticello Guard.

Stallings—This is Bill's first year in High School and he has made the first string!

Barnett—Harold played a good game all season and proved to be a plenty good sport.

Taylor—This is Lance's first year in Hi also. He is good for short passes. Great things are expected of him in the future.

Muse—Calvert has proved to be a fine field general. He graduates and will be missed next year.

Scantling—Randolph didn't come out until the season was half over, but his place will be hard to fill.

Bailey—Cabell played a wonderful game, but had to go to the hospital for an appendicitis operation.

Jones—Billy also played all but two quarters. He made one of the three touchdowns for Lone by a seventy-yard run.

Basket-Ball Review

WITH only two lettermen back from last year, Coach Leitch succeeded in making a real basket-ball team out of the few men who were out at the beginning of the season. Handicapped by losing the first few games, after a spontaneous outburst from winning the first game, the team kept their fighting spirit and finished the season in glory. If you study the schedule carefully, you will realize that it is a "tough" one. The scores of practically all of the games are very close. It is fitting that we congratulate each member of the team who contributed in this season's success. The program is, by far, the best one Lane has had in basket-ball for some years. Under it the team has shown up well.

The Lane High students and the town people did not give much support to the team at the opening of the season, but everyone admired their "pluck" and courage and soon turned out to support them.

There were six winners of the coverted "C" including Manager Spicer. Special credit is due to Coach Leitch in putting out such a team from the material which he had available.

Fight On, Old Lane High

(Tune: V. M. I. Spirit)

Fight on, old Lane High,
Fight on with all your might,
Win us a victory
Before the fall of night,
Be fair in your playing
And hit that line hard;
Come on you back-field
And smash o'er guard.
Try forward passes
And runs around the end
In running and punting
Oh, never give in.
We're looking for victory
So win, win, win!
That's the spirit of L. H. S.!

The Sun

By Margaret White

The sun's a great and glorious thing,
A dazzling, radiant, powerful king,
A snow white bank of clouds his throne,
The turquoise sky above, his home.
He changes gloomy things to gold
And paints the earth in colors bold
Before his brave and valiant tread
The darkest shadow flees in dread.

In spring he rises to behold
His realm no longer bleak and cold
But gay and bright with flowers fair
Perfuming all the fresh spring air.
His brooks their ice-bound fetters break
Their happy singing way they take
Down mountains growing green each day
To moss-green dells where fairies play.

In summer from his throne on high
He gazes down from cloudless sky
Where waving fields of ripening corn
The rolling prairies now adorn;
The wind has ceased; a calm cool breeze
Blows graceful skies on glassy seas.
The stars in darkened sky are bright,
A myriad of twinkling light.

The autumn sun sees bright red leaves
Drifting down from bare-limbed trees;
Feels the strong winds blowing by
Tossing dust and leaves on high;
Sees flying flocks of graceful birds,
Lowing cattle grouped in herds,
Waving fields once more stand bare
Orchard fruits are stored with care.

The winter sun looks on a land
Changed as though by fairy wand—
The ground no longer fair and green
But whitened by a silvery sheen,
The rivers hushed in icy homes
Changed as though by fairy wand—
The air is fresh and cool and clear;
There is a sound of Christmas cheer.

The great sun never can be tired
With such a realm to be admired—
Always changing, never the same
Don't you think, he must be vain?

(Prize-Winning Poem, 1930.)

IS FALLING. THE IS REGAL IN ITS ICY SPLENDOR. ARE FROZEN OVER. SHIVERS RAN THRU WHO OF SHIRE. STANDING BY THE TREE, A SACRED SPOT FOR HER AND HER LOVER. WHERE THE SUMMER BEFORE, SWEET HAD BLOOMED, SHE REVIEWED THE UNHAPPY EVENTS OF THE PAST SEASON. SHE -ED WAS IT ONLY LAST SUMMER THAT HAD HELD IN HIS AND HAD -ED AT HER FEET, WHISPERING SWEET WORDS:-

"DEAREST! YOU BE MY WIFE? WE'LL D A LOVE-NEST FOR TWO. I SHALL WRITE S TO YOU, AND OUR LOVE WILL NEVER GROW COLD."

BUT THEN THERE HAD COME AND SHE HAD SENT HIM AWAY TO AND TO PINE FOR HER. SHE HAD KEPT

THESE MEMORIES IN THE OF HER HEART.

SUDDENLY HER MUSINGS WERE BROKEN BY THE SOUND OF APPROACHING FOOTSTEPS SHE LOOKED. NO! IT COULDNT BE! YES, IT WAS. "HILDA!" - "ARCHIBALD!"

AGAIN SHE WAS IN HIS STRONG ARMS AND SUBMISSIVE.

"OH, MY DEAREST, I KNEW YOU WOULD FOR ME. THERE'S SOMETHING AND IN YOU. PLEASE FORGIVE ME, FORGIVE ME. YOU ARE NO YOU ARE NO NIT- LET US AT ONCE"

IT IS NOW. TWO FIGURES MAY BE SEEN STROLLING DOWN THE THEY PAUSE. A FAINT TINKLE-TINKLE REACH THEIR EARS. THEY STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN OH" !" THEY CRY "'TIS ONLY A !"

THIS STORY IS ENDED.

Pages From a Student's Diary

SEPTEMBER

1—Joined in the celebration of Labor Day—Started back to school.

16—A number of new members tried out for the Glee Club. Such singing!

17—The new members were initiated into the Literary Societies. They'll soon be all right.

19—We had a welcome assembly for the Freshmen this morning and a Freshman Mixer at the Methodist Church tonight.

26—First football game of the season against V. E. S. 12-0 in their favor.

27—Miss Clore changed her name to Johnson—well, I'll not go into the long and short of it.

OCTOBER

3—We tied Culpeper in a football game with the score 6-6.

12—Senior officers and sponsor elected.

30—Helped sell tickets to the matinee performance of "The Fan" given by the University of Virginia Players' Club.

31—Another defeat in football—this time by Staunton, 12-0.

31—Hallowe'en! Was it spooky!

NOVEMBER

8—At last! A victory—Lane 12; V. S. D. B.—7. Let's hope they keep it up!

14—We were defeated by Harrisonburg on their field with a score of 32-0. And what a game!

16—Judging by the posters stuck around, Book Week has begun.

20—Each class gave a book week play in assembly. The Sophomores took off the honors with "Penrod."

26—Thanksgiving! Football game—defeated by Clarendon.

DECEMBER

5—The Hi-Y entertained the football team with a banquet at the Methodist Church. A big time was had by all.

22—Did a good turn today. Helped fill the Hi-Y Xmas baskets.

23—Feel really Christmas spirited after the H. L. S. assembly program today. They gave the play, "Why the Chimes Rang."

24—Vacation! I can't say just what happened.

JANUARY

5—School opened. We had to start studying and forget the good times for a while.
8—We beat Lexington in a basket-ball game 16-13. Encouraging to say the least.
17—Exams started. Woe unto me.
19—Bridgewater bowed to us 18-15.

FEBRUARY

2—Reports! I'm sure glad I passed Solid.
3—Back to work again under new regime.
14—The last order for senior rings was sent off.
17—Annual contest started. Freshman first to be put up.
20—Mr. Swindler's history class gave an assembly program representing the first Constitutional Congress.
20—The Freshmen were entertained by the Hi-Y boys at a social. Suckers!!!
24—The winners of the different contests were announced. Seniors, for the most part, victorious.

MARCH

4—Mason Spicer entertained the basket-ball team at a banquet given at his home.
8—At the senior meeting we decided to have the Baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist Church. We're going to have caps and gowns!
13—The Girls' Glee Club gave an assembly.
21—"In the spring a young man's fancy, etc." I've got spring fever already.

APRIL

1—April Fools' Day. Did I get fooled? Et comment!
9—The Players' Club gave the play "Don't Wake The Wife." Mr. Riedel-Margaret-Charles—
24—Miss L. T. Jones gave a Latin assembly.
25—Field-Day. 'Nuff said.

MAY

1—Literary contests were held at the University.
8—The Hi-Y had charge of the assembly today.
22—Miss Brown's French assembly. Allons, enfants de la patrie.
29—We had the grandest banquet at Farmington.
30—Class night! Prophecy!
31—Baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Bell at the Methodist Church—and—
